RESOLUTIONS.

Dr. L. H. King.

Whereas we have been graced and blessed with the presence of Dr. L. H. King, Editor of our great Southwestern Christian Advocate, who, with his great eloquence, laid heavily upon our hearts the needs and worth of that greatest of all papers, and through his convincing way made us take notice that the crucial moments of the paper's needs are upon us, and the great necessity of a better support for it by means of more subscriptions;

Resolved, That the New Orleans District, with its heroic pastors and noble laymen, stand by the Southwestern Christian Advocate as never before.

Resolved further, That each pastor and layman return from the seat of this Conference with the determined spirit to raise the full quota of subscriptions for the District, and see to it that each quota goes over the top.

Bishop R. E. Jones, D.D., LL.D.

Whereas, we, the ministers of the New Orleans District, are so very happy under his leadership, religiously, socially, and financially, for the good of the race;

Whereas, we are thankful to God and the Methodist Episcopal Church for assigning him to the New Orleans Area, be it

Resolved, That we will stand by him by putting all of his programs "over the top."

District Superintendent.

Whereas Dr. E. W. Kinchen, our very eloquent, painstaking and efficient District Superintendent, who has, by his loving and brotherly spirit, led us up to the highest peak of the mount of vision; and

Whereas, in him we find a brother beloved, who by his inspiring and enthusiastic leadership and powerful magnetism, has so gripped our hearts, and the sparks of his eloquence, high Christian statesmanship, has touched our lives and dispensed within us such a part of himself that will endear him to us always:

Resolved, That we, the pastors and laymen, and the whole District stand by him in putting over the great program of the Church.

Resolved further, That the District, under his safe and very high sense of leadership, cannot fail to accomplish all of the requirements of the general Church.

Dr. C. M. Melden.

Whereas, we have seen how New Orleans University has grown during his Presidency and is endorsed as the leading college in New Orleans for Negroes; be it

Resolved, That we endorse him and will help him in keeping the college at the front.

Pastor Coleman.

Whereas, Rev. J. C. Coleman, the very earnest, true, loving and energetic pastor, in his true, brotherly spirit, has spared no pains to make our stay here one of the best and most pleasant in the history of the New Orleans District;

And whereas, through sacrifice and otherwise, he has shown himself a brother beloved, and that there has been no discrimination in the great preparation for our comfort, no great and small brother, but all receiving and sharing alike at his hands;

And whereas, by his diligence and thorough knowledge of the situation, has made it possible for carrying out the whole program, both in letter and spirit;

Resolved, That we all extend to him our heartfelt gratitude and ever pray that the blessing of the Almighty God always attend him and his good wife, and that he may always be under the guidance and influence of the Holy Spirit.

Dr. T. Restin Heath.

Whereas, under his superintendency the Flint Goodridge Hospital has taken a very high place for advancing good health, be it

Resolved, That we shall do our best to help him in his work.

The People of Angie Circuit, Bogalusa and Mt. Zion B. Church.

Whereas the good people of the Angie Circuit, who have stood by the pastor so nobly and heroically in entertaining this Conference,

And whereas they have spared no pains, nor chickens, nor goats, nor sheep, nor hogs, nor anything else for our comforts;

And whereas they have administered to our every reasonable necessity in such abundance and withheld nothing;

And whereas the happy spirit in which it was all done, and that it showed that the spirit of the Master was leading them;

Resolved, That we ever carry them in our hearts and record our profound gratitude and thanks to them for their hospitality, and that we pray earnestly that the blessing of God ever be with them in all of their works.
proficient District Superintendent of the Baton Rouge District, having honored us by looking in upon us, and with his Reverend Chinn.

Whereas Rev. W. Scott Chinn, the very energetic and eloquence, lifted us into higher atmosphere to look into the program of the Church; and whereas his great speech has turned such light as we have never before had the opportunity of having on the great centenary program;

Resolved, That we appreciate and record our approval of his great spirit in which it was delivered to us, and that we all may be inspired to reach the highest standard of stewardship and service.

Resolved further, That we pray God's blessing on him and his work.

Dr. E. M. Jones.

Whereas we are so well pleased with him because he has been among us so long, and we know him to be so good and true, be it

Resolved, That we shall help him put his Centenary Program always "over the top."

Reverend Reeves.

Whereas Rev. C. W. Reeves, the pastor of St. Mark M. E. Church, and a fraternal delegate from the Baton Rouge District, having come to us bearing fraternal greetings, and as we listened to great words of greeting that fell from his lips as jewels, our hearts were electrified and we were inspired to raise our standards higher and strive to put the great program of the church over, in spite of oppositions,

Resolved, That we vote a board of thanks to him for his eloquent greeting and brotherly conduct, and that we continue to pray for him and those he represents, and may the hand of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, ever lead on up the eternal hills.

The Secretary.

Whereas our own brother beloved, Rev. Cornelius Johnson, A.B., efficient and faithful Secretary, having rendered us such faithful and proficient service;

And whereas the records of the proceedings of each session, and absolutely sacrificing the social life around the building and on the campus until his work was thoroughly prepared and every item was recorded;

Resolved, That we record our thanks and appreciation for his noble and unstinted service.

State Secretary of the W. H. M. S., Mrs. C. S. Stanley.

Whereas Mrs. C. S. Stanley, Annual Conference Corresponding Secretary of the W. H. M. S. of the Louisiana Conference, has, from time to time, helped us nobly with her timely advices;

And whereas she has proven her worth and to be fitted for the great task which has been intrusted to her, and that we have received valuable information from her concerning the noble work and great attainments of the society;

Resolved, That we stand by the Woman's Home Missionary Society along all lines of its noble work.

District President of the W. H. M. S., Mrs. A. J. Jenkins.

Whereas Mrs. A. J. Jenkins, our District President of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, whose labor and worth and indispensable to this District, and her talented and untiring efforts and unstinted labor and life are proving such a benediction in lifting the women and girls of this District to the very highest standard of Christian service;

Resolved, That we stand by her in her great work and noble efforts, and that each pastor, at whose charge there is no such auxiliary, may on his return see to it that the Woman's Home Missionary Society is organized, and take its place in the District for the great work to which the churches are calling them for in this noble Christian service.
